

Scale your AltFi with Q2 Lending

Leverage Automated, End-to-End Lending to Power your Growth Strategy

AltFis like you need lending solutions that drive strategic growth. You need scalable, easy to implement, and cost-effective technology.

Q2 Lending automates and revolutionises your lending capabilities while empowering you to drive revenue, streamline operating processes, and close and fund loans seamlessly.

Scale the right way, at the right time

Our cloud-based, end-to-end modular approach offers these integrated or point solutions, depending on your need:

Q2 Portal

A configurable front-end portal that allows you to create a unique, branded application experience.

Q2 Originate

A unified, highly configurable module that enables AltFis to accelerate and manage all commercial products in one place.

Q2 Loan

A complete servicing application that automates loan billing, payments, collections, and accounting within one robust, flexible, and secure platform.

Q2 Collections

Automated collection and metrics tracking solutions that enable AltFis to contact borrowers successfully and maximise revenue.

Q2 Marketplace

Similar to apps for your Smartphone, Marketplace allows third parties to create innovative services and offer them directly to your borrowers – all within a single portal.

Benefits

- Eliminate manual errors through automated and streamlined workflows
- Accelerate revenue growth by simplifying the buying cycle and closing more deals in less time
- Improve efficiencies and scalability by handling application volumes at 3X your historic levels without adding staff or compromising lending standards
- Build better borrower experiences by engaging more deeply with your customers at each stage of the lending process

Features

- Cloud-based, digital, end-to-end loan origination and servicing
- Configurable solution helping you to rapidly scale your business
- Create market-leading, best-in-class experiences for your customers and staff
- Be assured of quick, hassle-free implementations – our fastest turnaround for a greenfield implementation was 8 weeks, from zero to live
- A cost-effective, innovative, and flexible partner

It would cost me millions if I spent all my time trying to build this kind of system from scratch—and it would take years to do it. Q2 did all that for me.

– CEO and Founder, Knoma

We were looking for a system that would not only support us now, but one that would easily scale with us as we grow the business.
